Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notices" free any more than a merchant can toss over his counter free gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

THE LEDGER PRINTS THE REAL NEWS

A POEM OF FACT.

Say,
It was Hobson's choice,
And he took it;
And look at him today:
There isn't
A chap
In a mile and a lap
With half such
A snap
As Hobson has got—and say
If any young fellow
That's lighting
Wants honor and glory and fame,
You bet
Your sweet life
He must peel for
The strife,
And show the whole world
That he's game!

There were two additions to the Central Presbyterian Church yesterday.

For strictly pure Paris Green call at Henry W. Ray's Postoffice Drugstore.

Rev. Dr. Waller will conduct the prayer meeting at the Central Presbyterian Church Wednesday night.

Mrs. Ella Calhoun has moved from Front street to the Wilson residence on Third street, adjoining the Convent.

Mr. and Mrs. Bond and family of Lexington have taken up their residence in the dwelling adjoining Mr. David Hechinger on West Third street.

Vermont is paying her soldiers $7 a month in addition to the regular Government allowance. Vermont is a wee little state, and its bank account is not as large as Missouri's, but it knows how to treat its volunteer soldiers.

Marguerite, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Sammons, died at the family residence on Front street yesterday morning at 8:30 of cholera infantum. The little one was not quite fourteen months old, and had been sick only since late Saturday afternoon. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, with services by the Rev. A. T. Ennis of St. Patrick's Church. Interment at Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Sammons have the sympathy of the community in the death of their baby.

The excursion to Lexington over the L. and N. yesterday was the success of the season. There were 392 of our fellow citizens who went to visit Maysville's gallant soldier boys at Camp Corbin. And each of these did a double service—encouraged the brave boys who have gone to the front in behalf of their country, and at the same time aided the building fund of the new Opera-house. The L. and N. generously gives 40 per cent. of the entire receipts to the fund, amounting to the handsome sum of $120.80, for which Mr. E. H. Binzel, the Maysville Agent, and the big hearted L. and N. folks have many thanks of the Building Committee.

A PECULIAR SUIT.

It Grew Out of the Death of a Dog Under the Knife of the Surgeon.

Miss Lily Blanchard, who lives at Washington, this county, had a valuable dog some time ago that was her sole companion at home.

There was an unnatural growth of some kind developed on one of the dog's ears, and its owner called in Veterinary Surgeon E. Paris Wheeler to make an examination, which he did, and reported that an operation was necessary in order that the animal could have speedy relief.

Miss Blanchard consented, and the dog was given chloroform, and the Doctor began his work, when it was found that there had not been enough of the anesthetic administered, whereupon the lady insisted that more be given, the Doctor protesting all the time, but finally yielded and gave the dog another dose, which killed it.

Dr. Wheeler presented his bill, amounting to $2.50, a few days ago, which Miss Blanchard promptly refused to pay, whereupon the Doctor brought suit in Judge Wadsworth's Court and gained it.

And then Miss Blanchard entered suit in the same Court for $50, alleging malpractice, which was decided against her. She has appealed the case.

Mrs. H. P. Lewis will soon move from this city to Lexington.

Mrs. E. F. Clay has been elected Matron of the new Oddfellows Widows and Orphans Home at Lexington, which begins its career in August.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has a decision in preparation in which it will be held that the stamp representing the tax on express matter must be affixed to the bill of lading by the express companies, and not by the individual shipper.

Fremont Park.

The star show of the season will be at Fremont Park this week, headed by the great comedy boomers Mitchell and Love, late of Primrose & West's Minstrels. Re-engagement of the fun makers, Teed and Allen, George Edwards, done turned white. Special engagement of Billy Ross, champion all round dancer of the world, and Lillian Von Thise.

Electric Park.

Manager Seeker has certainly secured a big attraction for this popular amusement resort in the Grace Shannon Balloon Co., which is acknowledged to be the best company of balloonists in the world. They will give nightly ascensions, the first being tonight at 8:30 p. m. There will be a grand display of fireworks from the clouds, making in all a grand sight and one worth going miles to see. This company is under the management of Colonel Ed. Hutchinson, the renowned aeronautic engineer, whose name alone is enough to insure a successful balloon ascension, while those daring aeronauts, Prof. Charles A. Thompson and wife, will make the daring leap through space. In addition to this big feature the fine vaudeville entertainment will be given in the cozy theater by the Mac Robbins, that clever team of singers and dancers, funny Lew Seeker, pleasing Ada Wilkes and the real comic, little Rastus. All this and a car ride for only 10 cents. Go out tonight and see a real balloon ascension after being bored with imitations.

DIED AT GLASGOW.

Miss Jane R. Parke, Who Once Conducted a Private School Here.

The following notice is taken from THE Semi-Weekly News, published at Glasgow, in the issue of Friday, July 8th:

"Miss Jane R. Parke died in this place at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, aged over 80 years. Her death was caused by the breaking down of the constitution incident to extreme old age, and had been momentarily expected for several weeks before the final dissolution took place. Miss Parke had been a teacher in the schools of Glasgow, first in Liberty College and later at the head of her own private school, for ten or twelve years. She was a lady of the highest culture and refinement, and was greatly esteemed here by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. This morning the remains will be shipped to Boston, Mass., where they will be interred beside those of her relatives."

Miss Parke will be remembered by many of the older residents of Maysville. For a number of years she conducted a private school in a house where the Christian Church now stands, and during her residence here she was held in the highest esteem by her friends and patrons.

She left this city about thirteen years ago, but the news of her death will bring sorrow to many who remember her lovely and true Christian character.

Shirtwaists

No wonder they hold their own season after season—there is no substitute for their comfortable prettiness. These we tell of are chic and cheap—a miscellaneous lot, no two alike, sizes broken, but all have pointed yoke back, loose front, laundered collar and cuffs. A round-up of several lots. Each Waist, at the price, a bargain prize. All have been 75c. and $1 or over. To make the distribution easiest to you we've arranged two selling prices, 50c. and 80c. A worthy bargain surely.

BOYS' LINEN COLLARS.

Hot weather tells the betterness of 5-ply collars over 3-ply—the wilting is much slower. These collars are linen on both sides, making the inside cool and giving a fine finish that doesn't soil quickly. Such collars have always been 15c. until we made the new price—5-ply Linen Collars 5c. each, 6 for 25c.

BELTS.

Stik Belting in stripes and solid colors 10c. yard. Handsome Mourning Belt Buckles 25c. Correct cloth Mourning Belts 25c., something new. Colored Belts, slightly soiled, reduced from 35c. to 15c. These are very cheap, as the belts are slight. Other shirtwaist accessories are Madras Ties 5c.; Linen Cuffs 15c., 2 pair for 25c.; Phantom Shirtwaist Extender 25c. Light, cool, adaptable to the present fashion in dress—holds the shirtwaist out gracefully from the form. Made of summer netting shaped with bones.
